- Company: Acian Technologies is Asia's first Innovation Consulting company. Working with multinational companies, Acian's consulting teams bring ideas and projects to life through its technology expertise and project management experience. Founded in 2005, it is growing at a fast pace and building its reputation as the partner that can help companies deliver innovation.
- Headquarters: Singapore
- Industry: Professional Services

“NetSuite allows us to have a complete, real-time view of all our customers so we can accurately monitor profitability. It allows our consultants to effectively track their time and expenses for each of our projects worldwide.”

— Julien Arnaud, CEO
Acian Technologies

Challenges with previous software:

- Acian needed to get rid of disparate spreadsheets in favor of one integrated solution for ERP and CRM.

Results with NetSuite:

- With help from NetSuite Professional Services, Acian Technologies was able to get up and running within two months
- Using NetSuite for regular accounting, project-based accounting, and CRM
- Acian consultants around the world track their time and expenses in NetSuite
- Company benefits immensely from centralized business contacts and opportunities
- Dashboards help executives monitor project profitability and backlogs in real-time
